PROVENANCE

Capt. Lewis Parker picked up many of his maritime papers through dealers, auctions, estate sales or relatives of past maritime figures. Nevertheless, I cannot find any documentation of how he acquired these papers other than they were part of his maritime collection that he bequeathed to the museum.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

Captain Ebenezer D. Lane was born on February 2, 1814 to Levi Lane of New Gloucester and Sarah Hicks Lane of North Yarmouth. He married Sarah Jane Pratt of North Yarmouth on January 17, 1842. They had several children including Leila Lanthia (born November 3, 1842), Samuel, Alfred, Sarah, and Mary. In the 1850 census, his occupation was listed as "Ship Master." Although Captain Lane sailed far and wide (according to the Yarmouth Historical Society), the documents in this collection do not reflect that he was out to sea. Captain Lane is shown as a ship owner and agent. He co-owned and/or was a ship agent for the Abbie C. Titcomb (Schooner), Bertha (Bark), Eureka (Bark), S. R. Bearce (Bark), Alice D. Cooper (Ship), Alice Vennard (Ship), Archimedes (Bark), Gleaner (Bark), and Hiero (Bark). All of the vessels were built in Capt. Lane's home town of Yarmouth with the exception of the Alice D. Cooper, built in Cape Elizabeth. By 1860, his occupation was listed as farmer. In 1857, he purchased the tavern built by Seth Mitchell in the early 1800s. Captain Lane ran the tavern through 1871. The tavern is still known as the "Old Lane Tavern" and exists today as an apartment building on Portland Street in Yarmouth. Previous to this, it was a dairy known as the Old Tavern Farm Dairy, which began in 1815. Even though Captain Lane owned this tavern, records indicate in this collection that he continued to work in the shipping business up until his death. Captain Lane died on March 18, 1879 at the age of 65. He is buried in the Baptist Cemetery (beside the old Meeting House on the Hill) in Yarmouth. Sarah Jane died in October 1862 and is buried beside him.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTES

The Ebenezer D. Lane collection consists of eight boxes of assorted manuscript papers. The papers are primarily vessel documents for the Abbie C. Titcomb (Schooner), Bertha (Bark), Eureka (Bark), and S. R. Bearce (Bark). Papers are limited for the Alice D. Cooper (Ship), Alice Vennard (Ship), Archimedes (Bark), Gleaner (Bark), and Hiero (Bark). The majority of the papers date 1870 to 1878. Collection contents include ownership, registration, insurance papers, correspondence, receipts, construction, account summaries, accounts general information, charter parties, freight & cargo, ship stores, protest papers, slops and a log-book as well as crew wages, portage bills, articles of agreement, board, meals and medical documents.

Ownership records document joint owners and amounts paid for vessels. Correspondence are from various insurance companies that Captain Lane did business with. Other correspondence is from ship brokers, commission merchants and various captains of ships. Captains include John S. Titcomb, Levi Marston, Alvin Hall, William Edevean, S. B. Kenny, J. S. Clark, E. E. Hill, Samuel Pote, Daniel B. Darrah, Samuel H. Sweetser, George T. Gretchell and Charles Chandler. These captains list freight, cargo, and costs for the vessels they commanded. Vessels traveled to Portland, Boston, Gloucester, Charleston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New Orleans, San Francisco, New York, Nova Scotia, Cuba, Barbados, St. Thomas, Samana Bay, Turks Island, Glasgow, Seacombe, Liverpool, Falmouth, Plymouth, Birkenhead, Italy, Portugal, Spain, Gibraltar, Bombay, Rio de Janeiro, Peru, and Chile among other locations. Moreover, Captain Daniel B. Darrah's log-book notes his voyage on the Eureka from Liverpool to Philadelphia, 1895-1896.

The collection records domestic and foreign trade, sea routes, nineteenth-century ports, shipping business operations, finance, contracts, types of cargo, costs, crew wages and a captain's perspective at sea among much other maritime history. The earliest document is a promissory note signed by John S. Titcomb on November 17, 1863 (Boston) for the sum of $211 owed to the Columbia Insurance Company within twelve months. The latest document is a receipt of $150 U. S. gold dollars paid to Captain Daniel B. Darrah on April 9, 1898 (New York) by Flood and Company upon discharge of the Eureka.
